

M'CLATCHY ANSWERS POND.

Editor of the Sacramento Bee Takes Issue with the Principal of the Oakland High School.

THE EVENING BEE, EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT, JAS. M'CLATCHY, PUBLISHERS, SACRAMENTO, CAL., NOVEMBER 11, 1901.

EDITOR OAKLAND TRIBUNE:—Will you kindly permit me space in your esteemed journal to intrude into the discussion now going on in Oakland concerning the use of "Bible Readings" as a text-book in the Oakland High School? I had read the articles pro and con with much interest, but with no desire to engage in the controversy until my name was brought therein by a personal friend, Professor J. H. Pond, for many years the excellent principal of the Sacramento High School, and now holding a similar position in Oakland.

Said Professor Pond, in an interview in Friday's TRIBUNE:

"The book came to be adopted in this way. I have known of this work for some time, as it was adopted as a text-book in the Sacramento High School about a year and a half ago. Its use in that school has been fraught with success, and some months after its adoption at the Capital City High School, Mr. McClatchy, editor of the Sacramento Bee, and one of the most prominent Catholics in the state, printed an editorial one column and a half long, extolling the book as a book of the very highest class as a text-book for students desiring education on the beautiful solemnity of thoughts and writings."

Professor is mistaken in his belief that anything I have ever written extolling the literary magnificence of the Bible could be construed into approval of the use of any part thereof as a text-book in any public school under any circumstances whatsoever.

On the contrary, not only in every article signed by myself upon this subject, but as well in every editorial published in the Bee thereon, no matter by whom written, it has been invariably contended that the education to be derived from a systematic study of the Bible, and especially of its literary masterpieces is one that must be obtained outside and apart from the public schools; that to inculcate such branch of education within our common schools is to introduce sectarianism therein, as has been decided by every court in the State where the subject has come up for judicial adjudication. On October 27, 1900, The Bee editorially commended the refusal of the Chicago Board of Education by a large majority to permit these "Readings From the Bible" in the public schools of Chicago. The Bee saying: "That is right. The Bible has no business in any public school in this land. It is a sectarian book—the book of a sect called the Christians. It is more than that. It is a denomination book, for any Bible that may be picked up is either the Bible of a denomination of Christians called Protestants, or is the Bible of a denomination of Christians called Catholics."

"Being a sectarian and a denominational book, its use in any way whatever in the public schools, as a text-book, or as a book to be read from in any manner, is an open and plain violation of the laws of the land."

As far back as February 4, 1885, the Bee published a lengthy article quoting numerous decisions to show that any readings from the Bible in public schools are against the law.

A case directly in point, however, is the decision of Judge Carpenter of the United States Circuit Court, given at Detroit, Michigan, on May 8, 1897, and published in full in the Bee on May 30th following:

The Board of Education of Detroit had purchased 4,000 copies of a book entitled "Readings From the Bible"—probably the identical work now under discussion in Oakland. Conrad Pfeiffer, mandamus of the Board, setting up the plea that his son, as a pupil of the schools, was obliged to attend a place of religious worship, and that himself, as a taxpayer, was compelled to assist in maintaining places for the dissemination of religious teachings, contrary to the Constitution of the State.

In a very decided and clean cut decision, Judge Carpenter held with the petitioner, declaring that "Readings From the Bible" contains religious instruction, and that the schools in which the book was being read had become "places of religious worship" according to the meaning of the Constitution of Michigan. The language of the Constitution of California on this point is more stringent than that of Michigan, as any one can see for himself.

The fundamental principle in our common schools should be the inculcation of respect and obedience to the law. The introduction of "Readings From the Bible" into the common schools as a text-book or in any manner, being against the law, it should not be necessary to present any other argument against it. Yours very truly, CHAS. K. M'CLATCHY.

ANDY LAWRENCE GETS FORTY DAYS IN JAIL.

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—On a charge of contempt of court Judge Haney today sentenced Andy Lawrence, managing editor of Hearst's Chicago-American, to forty days in the County Jail. The sentence of H. S. Canfield, who wrote the article objectionable to the court, was fixed at 30 days in jail. The case against S. S. Canfield, financial manager of the paper and John C. Hammond, assistant city editor were dismissed. Judge Haney declared that the cases against W. R. Hearst, majority stockholder of the paper, Homer Davenport, cartoonist, and Clara Briggs, also a cartoonist, would wait until such time as these respondents could be brought into court by the sheriff.

Former Governor Altgeld, one of counsel for the respondents, entered a formal exception to the decision.

"This case, I may say," the court remarked, "is not appealable. You may file a bill of exceptions for a writ of error, however. I am willing to delay the serving of papers on Mr. Lawrence and Mr. Canfield until you have drawn up your bill."

"We do not feel that we have any favors coming from this court," Mr. Altgeld answered. "We are much obliged."

The court room was crowded at the time when Judge Haney read the decision.

The article in the American upon which the proceedings in contempt were based was a criticism of the courts decision on an application for the forfeiture of the Charter of the People's Gas, Light and Coke Company.

Judge Haney said if the matter published were allowed to go unnoted by the court, it paved the way for other attacks and that the judiciary, if not held in respect would fall, with all Democratic Government. The article, the court declared, was not merely an attack on the people and the court, but a bold threat to every court.

It should, therefore, not go unpunished.

A few minutes after the rendering of the decision and the imposition of the sentences as to Lawrence and Canfield, Judge Dunne, upon application, issued a writ of habeas corpus as to them, returnable immediately.

FIERCE STORMS ON ENGLISH COASTS.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—Violent winds, rain and snow storms are reported from all the coasts of the United Kingdom. A fierce gale is blowing in the channel and mountainous seas are running. No less than half a dozen small vessels within sight of Dover are flying signals of distress and the life boats are vainly attempting to reach them. A rocket apparatus has been sent to the south foreland, where an Admiralty vessel is on the rocks with the crew clinging to the rigging. Several vessels have been dismantled and tugs are rescuing crews of vessels which were driven ashore.

At other channel ports there were similar exciting scenes. Ships everywhere are running for shelter.

The steamer Cato collided with the British steamer Loobvenachur (Belfast) which left Melbourne August 15 for London, at the mouth of the Thames.

The latter foundered, but the crew were saved.

Wild weather prevails over the Lake district. The snow is falling on the Westernward hills. A number of coast towns have suffered damage to their sea walls, and houses, and several rivers have broken their banks and seriously damaged the low parts of inland towns. Traffic in some of the streets of Blackburn has been stopped. There are several feet of water in many of the low districts. Belfast is flooded and elsewhere mills and schools are closed on account of the floods.

The seas are so high off the Tyne that shipping movements have been stopped. Even river traffic is partially suspended. Hundreds of shipyard men are idle on account of the abnormal rains.

There have been a number of wrecks on the Sunderland coast.

FIGHTING FIRE TO SAVE THEIR HOMES.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 12.—According to dispatches received here, forest fires are raging in the vicinity of Red Bud and Alto Pass, Illinois. Poplar Bluff, Missouri, and Sedgewick, Arkansas. North of Red Bud the woods along the black creek and Richland Creek bottoms are on fire and the farmers are fighting hard to save their homes. Farm property in the vicinity of Alto

Pass is in great danger from the fire in the timber west and south of there. Dense smoke envelops the whole territory. The townspeople turned out last night in response to the country people's call for help and are strenuously fighting the flames. The fire is within half a mile of town and coming before a terrific gale. Much fencing and several young fruit orchards have already been destroyed.

South of Poplar Bluff, Missouri, damage to property is feared. Hunters who have been driven in owing to the increase heat and smoke report deer, wolves and other game fleeing north to escape the fire. Arkansas, states that the plant of the Culver Lumber & Manufacturing plant was burning with several hundred thousand feet of lumber.

WAS TO PLAY PART OF A DEAD MAN.

LOUISVILLE, Kentucky, Nov. 12.—Through the efforts of the authorities of Louisville and Jeffersonville, the details of the alleged attempt of Xavell C. Rathburn to defraud the International Insurance Company are being brought out. Rathburn admits that after securing a corpse and dressing it in his own clothing he intended to set fire to the hotel and burn it down so that the body of the dead man could be identified as that of himself. Having, as they believe established the identity of the murdered man the detectives are now busy developing the case against Rathburn. He has told several stories but the one that he held out the longest and which he still maintains is true, is that he formed the conspiracy in conjunction with a deserter from the regular army by the name of Blanchard. He states that he and Blanchard met here by agreement and discussed the details of the plot. It was of course, necessary first to secure a corpse and Blanchard agreed to provide the corpse if Rathburn would set fire to the building after the corpse was prepared. "Blanchard brought the body there," said Rathburn. "I had nothing to do with killing him and doubt if he was killed. The man I have died about, but I do not know anything about it. I hope you will find Blanchard."

OUR CONSUL DIES AT APIA.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—A cablegram received at the State Department from Auckland, N. Z., announces the death at Apia, Samoa, on October 25th of Luther W. Osborne, United States Consul General at Apia. Mr. Osborne was born in New York and appointed to his present post from Nebraska, July 25, 1897. Thus he was the principal representative of the authority of the United States in the Samoan group in the troublesome days before the partition, and it appeared that he alone, of all the foreign representatives at Apia, aroused no opposition. He obtained the confidence of the natives and of the other representatives of the foreign powers. In addition to his post at Apia, Mr. Osborne was also Consul General at Nukualofa, the capital of the Congo group of islands.

WANTS A MILLION FOR SERVICE.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—In his annual report, which will be completed soon, Postmaster General Smith asks for an increase in the appropriation for the free delivery funds to $6,000,000. "He will extend the system as far as possible. He expresses the opinion that this branch of the work is of the greatest utility and will plead for most liberal consideration on the part of Congress. He will explain in some detail the recent action of the Department in the matter of second class mail matter, taking the position that the law granting a rate of 1 cent per pound contemplates benefit only to absolutely legitimate newspapers with bona fide subscription lists."

Royal Baking Powder has not its counterpart at home or abroad. Its qualities, which make the bread more healthful and the cake of finer appearance and flavor, are peculiar to itself and are not constituent in any other leavening agent.

HER NAME UNKNOWN. LOOKS LIKE BLUFF.

Well Dressed Woman Steps off the Haywards Car and Expires.

The remains of an unknown woman, about 55 years of age, are at the Morgue awaiting identification.

The dead woman was taken suddenly ill last evening about 5 o'clock in front of the Liberty Bakery on Washington street. She had just stepped from the Haywards car, when she staggered and fell. The patrol wagon was called and the unfortunate woman was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where she passed away at 5:15 o'clock this morning.

The woman was unconscious during the time she was at the hospital, consequently no clue to her identity could be obtained.

She was an elderly lady of medium build, nicely dressed. She wore a black skirt, a black cape with a coat satin finish, and an old-fashioned black hat. Her hair was iron gray.

Her clothing seemed to indicate that she was a woman of some means and of refinement.

An autopsy will be held tonight. The remains will remain at the Morgue for several days for identification.

As the woman was on the Haywards car, it is possible that she came from some of the houses touched by that line. It is improbable that a woman so nicely dressed and apparently well-to-do would not be missed.

NEGRO IS CAUGHT AT LAST.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Nov. 12.—The police this morning arrested a colored man who they claim is "Bossie" Francis, the negro wanted at Independence, Mo. He fits the description.

THE CRIME.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 12.—"Bossie" Francis is wanted for the murder last summer near Warrensburg, Mo., of Miss Mary Henderson, aged 40 years. Francis, who is about 20 years of age, had worked on the Henderson farm for years and was trusted. During the absence of all save Miss Henderson and Francis, the woman was ravished and murdered. Francis disappeared and for two weeks hundreds of armed men hunted him over four counties. Francis is under-sized and is crippled in one foot. Heavy rewards are offered for his arrest.

THE ARMY OF THE TENNESSEE.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 12.—The Thirty-third re-union of the Society of the Army of the Tennessee will be held in this city tomorrow and Thursday. A letter has been received by Lieutenant Henry C. Adams of the local Executive Committee:

"WHITE HOUSE, Washington, November 9, 1901.

"My Dear Sir:—The President has received your favor of the 5th inst., and requests me to express his sincere regret that imperative engagements already made will preclude him from accepting your cordial invitation to attend the Thirty-third re-union of the Society of the Tennessee."

"Conveying you the President's thanks for your thoughtful letter, I am, believe me, Yours very truly,

"GEORGE B. CORTELYOU."

MEDICAL MEN ARE IN SESSION.

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 12.—The eleventh annual meeting of the California Northern District Medical Society was opened in Unity Hall this morning.

Dr. E. W. Twitchell made a short address of welcome on behalf of the Sacramento Society for Medical Improvement.

The president's annual address by Dr. W. B. Bates of Davisville referred to the progress and general good work done by the society.

The first paper was by Dr. H. S. McGovern of this city upon "Tubercular Laryngitis," and the discussion was opened by Dr. William Riley Briggs, also of Sacramento. A paper by Dr. W. J. Hanna upon "The Subcutaneous Injection" followed, the discussion being opened by Dr. G. A. White.

Dr. T. P. Piery of Yuba City read suggestions upon diagnosis of "Presentation in Labor," and Dr. Wallace A. Briggs opened the discussion.

SAVED FROM THE GALLOWS.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Nov. 12.—Alice Nesenbauer, tried in 1900 for murdering her husband, was today saved from the gallows by a decision of the Supreme Court which held that there was no ground for her conviction. She had been convicted and sentenced to death for poisoning her husband, a Burlington round-house employe at Hannibal, in July, 1900. Two of Mrs. Nesenbauer's children had also died suddenly, and the fact that all three had been insured, Mrs. Nesenbauer objected to a post mortem examination and the finding of a package in the vault were strong factors in her conviction. Throughout her trial and imprisonment the prisoner had her baby constantly with her.

THREE MEN BLOWN TO ATOMS.

BLUEFIELD, W. Va., Nov. 12.—Thomas Sykes, Sam Davis and William Woodson were killed in the coal field today. They were opening a keg of powder when a spark fell from a miner's lamp, worn by one of the trio, into the powder, igniting it and causing an explosion. The three men were blown through the shack and were literally torn to pieces.

TRAGIC DEATH ON A LONG POLE.

PUEBLO, Colo., Nov. 12.—John White, a lineman in the employ of the Pueblo Traction Company, was electrocuted at the corner of Michigan and Abriendo avenues early this morning. He was discovered in a dying condition strapped to a tramway pole and died shortly after being taken down.

He evidently had come in contact with a live wire and was unable to descend from his position.

SCHLEY COURT HOLDS A SESSION.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 12.—The Schley Court of Inquiry held its regular session today. It was stated most positively after the session that not the slightest inkling of the nature of the court's verdict would be obtainable here; it is rendered from the War Department, and that no statement whatever would be made for the present.

FAIR PLAY FOR MISS STONE.

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Nov. 12.—Consul General Dickinson of Constantinople has supplemented his verbal representations to the Bulgarian Government by a note today in which he recapitulates the history of the abduction of Miss Ellen M. Stone and her companion, Mme. Tsilla, and the steps taken to obtain her release, and reminds the foreign minister of his promise to give every assistance. He also instances that here the attitude of subordinate officials has not conformed with this assurance. Finally Mr. Dickinson repeats his demand for the non-interference of the government. The governments reply, according to the opinion in official circles, was that the government hesitated to establish the precedent of giving protection to brigands in treating for the ransom of captives in the present case, involving the safety of two ladies, the government as an account of courtesy and humanity will comply with Mr. Dickinson's request.

LOOKS LIKE BLUFF.

Hanford's Water Scheme is not Impressive on Examination.

R. G. Hanford is getting a good deal of gratuitous advertising for his Mount Hamilton power and water scheme, which is all on paper as yet and promises to be for a long time to come. Local engineers who are familiar with the locality say the estimates of cost are ridiculously low, while the estimate of capacity is correspondingly high.

A trifling fluctuation of Contra Costa Water stock yesterday was exploited as a "big drop" caused by the promulgation of the Mount Hamilton project.

As a fact, the stock opened at $17 and closed at $75, and the sales amounted to just 100 shares. But fluctuations in stock do not alter conditions. The Contra Costa Company holds this field, and if the Hanford project means anything at all it means an attempt to force the Spring Valley and Contra Costa Companies to buy the water rights at Mount Hamilton.

This, of course, would cause an increase in the capitalization of the old companies.

The people of this community can judge for themselves whether this is desirable. They have had a taste of it.

Mr. Hanford is not a philanthropist. He is not going to put millions in a scheme merely to get a fight on his hands. If he enters into a fight the outcome will be similar to the outcome of the last water fight in this city.

To hydraulic engineers his estimate of $2,500,000 as the cost of a huge storage reservoir back of Mount Hamilton, an electric pole line to San Francisco and water mains to Oakland and Alameda are as unsubstantial as a title that is told. After the water is impounded it would cost more than that to pipe it to Oakland and lay down a system of street mains for its distribution. A system of this kind cannot be constructed in a few months, and the winter season is the worst time of the year for doing work of this character. It is therefore a little queer that this scheme should suddenly have been made public at the opening of the rainy season.

The two strings to its bow also have a fishy look to the initiated. One is electric power for San Francisco, and the other is water for Oakland. Now, two large companies are bringing electric power into San Francisco from the Sierra Nevada, and at the same time fuel oil has become so cheap that it is difficult to substitute electric for steam power. It may be deemed worth while for the electric companies to make an arrangement with Mr. Hanford. The whole project has a speculative air. It may be all right, but it is hardly far enough advanced for the people of this city to throw up their hats in joy over. Common experience teaches that the public seldom derives any benefit from projects of this character.

NEARLY WIPED OUT BY FIRE.

CUMBERLAND, Md., Nov. 12.—The mining town of Thomas, W. Va., on the West Virginia Central and Pittsburgh Railway was almost wiped out by fire, which started early today in the Gerstberger Hotel. Twenty business houses and seventy dwellings were consumed. The Catholic Church, Opera House, Gerstberger and Reynolds hotels, the jail, the water station and several houses belonging to the Davis Coal and Coke Company were destroyed. The coal company has given the residents all the box cars at Thomas to shelter the homeless. Scores of people were driven from home in their night clothes.

INSURGENTS CLEVERLY CAUGHT.

CATBALOGAN, Island of Samar, P. I., Nov. 12.—Diaz, the President of Talbogan, Island of Leyte, who has proved to be an agent of the Filipino Junta at Hong Kong, has been arrested. Many incriminating papers, implicating numerous officials, were seized at the time of his arrest.

The gunboat has discovered a signal station, working on the Island of Leyte and communicating with insurgents on the Island of Samar by the flash light system. Three operators were arrested and the station was destroyed. The men confessed that many recruits have been sent from Leyte to Samar.

NOYES IS CROSS-EXAMINED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—Judge Noyes again took the witness stand in the Noyes contempt case today. He said that Marshal Vawter had told him that there was $20,000 in it if he removed the receiver in one of the mine cases, and that Vawter had tried to get him to quiet the matter, but it had already been reported to Washington by Frost, to whom Noyes had told the story. Witness deplored emphatically the testimony of witnesses to the effect that he (Noyes) had engineered and maneuvered the Grand Jury or that names were stricken from the rolls after indictments had been brought.

The witness denied that he ever had a word with McKenzie about the appointment of a receiver before he took action and denied he ever heard until he read the testimony in the Dubose case that McKenzie had teams ready to start for the mines before he received the appointment. He offered no explanation of the matter.

PUBLIC UTILITIES AT FRESNO.

FRESNO, Cal., Nov. 12.—The citizens of Fresno before he ever had been given the opportunity of expressing their views on the question of the municipal ownership of public utilities. The City Trustees have called for the 19th prox., an election on the question of issuing $250,000 bonds to acquire a municipal water plant and on the 30th to decide whether to vote $25,000 bonds on a city lighting plant. The City Board of Education is figuring on a proposition to call an election to vote on $100,000 for additional school houses.

LAUNCHING POSTPONED.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—The armored cruiser Monmouth was to have been launched on the Clyde today, but the storm obliged a postponement of the ceremony. This is the first time in history that the launch of a warship has been postponed on the Clyde.

TELL OF WATER IN THE COUNTRY.

Witnesses Explain What They Spring Valley Lawyers Defend—Know About a Ditch in Washington Township.

The legal fight between a group of land owners on lower Alameda creek and the Spring Valley Water Company before Judge Greene is rather dry for a water suit. While the action is brought to compel the Spring Valley Company to let water sufficient to fill a certain ditch of no great importance run down Alameda creek, the contest is really for the waters of that stream. Farmer Overacker testified that he had leased the ditch for several years at an annual rental of $55, and that it had been allowed for years to fall into disrepair and had been abandoned at the lower end, which would indicate that all the riparian land owners on Alameda creek had signed a deed transferring to the Spring Valley all their rights to the water save a depth of twelve inches in the channel.

This morning A. O. Ellsworth testified that the ditch was regularly used every day in the year except when it rained. Water from it was continually used to irrigate a certain garden owned by him but rented out. He said the Spring Valley had placed a plank in the ditch in order to divert water to Rock's Nursery. After the diversion by the Spring Valley, he noticed that the flow in the ditch decreased during certain months, so that he was compelled to furnish his rental with Spring Valley water through a pipe. Ordinarily ten times as much water was diverted to the garden as was used in irrigating it. He could not tell how much water was carried in the ditch. Sometimes there was a great deal and sometimes very little. As to the quantity of the minimum and maximum flows, he could give no idea.

At recent years after the Spring Valley diversion the ditch ran full all the year round. From 1882 to 1895 plenty of water ran through to irrigate the garden, but every year since 1896 the ditch went dry after July.

The Spring Valley Company denies that the Washington and Murray Township Company, of which the plaintiff in this case is a minority stockholder, has any right to divert the waters of Alameda creek. M. L. Kellogg moved to strike out all of witness testimony relating to the alleged obstruction in the ditch on the ground that the pleadings raised no issue respecting the ditch, but simply went to defendant's right to divert the waters of Alameda creek, but was overruled. On cross-examination Mr. Ellsworth said the water diverted by the obstruction was used to irrigate land along the ditch. There are three channels in Alameda creek at the intake of the ditch. This intake is on the southern channel, which is not the main channel. Witness had known of the Vallejo Mills' stone conduit for twenty years. The intake of this conduit is above the intake of the ditch, but its point of discharge is but a mile below. This is important because the Spring Valley Company owns the Vallejo diversion and claims under it the right to divert 20,000,000 gallons daily from the creek.

FARMER'S FAMILY VICTIMS OF POISON.

BERLIN, Nov. 12.—Joseph Eberhaus, a farmer living near here, his wife and child were poisoned Saturday by strychnine sprinkled in their food while they were at church. Eberhaus came near dying and his wife and child received every aid of physicians to recuperate their after eating the poisoned food. This is the third attempt to poison the family within a year. Eberhaus is an industrious and popular young farmer and says he has no idea as to who the guilty party is. Sheriff Nestle is making every effort to find the would-be poisoners.

AN EVEN DOZEN STILL AT LARGE.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 12.—An even dozen convicts from the Fort Leavenworth prison were still at large this morning, no additional captures having been reported during the night. With the single exception, Frank Thompson, in the toils, the prison officials feel more confident of quickly securing the remainder of the men now at large, as Thompson exercised great influence over his comrades.

Nathan McLaughlin this morning said that reports from his deputies early today indicate that others of the convicts are being followed closely and will soon be run down.

IS HARD ON HIS ENEMIES

Chief Hodgkins is Rounded Up By the Police Board Because of Unfair Orders.

At the last meeting of the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners, Chief of Police Hodgkins was requested to furnish the Commissioners with a list of the beats patrolled by regular and special police officers. This request was made by the Commissioners with a view of investigating the alleged partiality of Chief Hodgkins in favoring his friends on the force with an easy beat and giving those who are personally opposed to him a hard beat.

It has been brought to the attention of the Commissioners that, in several instances, men who live at one extreme of the city are given beats at the other end. As the patrolmen must report to headquarters at least twice a day, this imposes a hardship on them. The time consumed in going back and forth is great. In one instance it is said that it takes nearly four hours for a certain patrolman to make his trips daily to and from his beat, adding to the fatigue of the day's labor.

The official records of this city, and your own, will bear out the statements herein made by me, and are open to the investigation of any interested citizen, and are not made for any other reason than that justice be done.

JOHN A. BRITTON,
President Oakland Gas, Light and Heat Company.

NOYES IS CROSS-EXAMINED.

On cross-examination Judge Noyes said when he issued the first order appointing McKenzie receiver he knew none of the defendants and that the only plaintiff with whom he was acquainted was Robert Chipps. He did not understand that Chipps was associated with McKenzie, and stated that the testimony of Chipps that he said, while en route to Nome, that he would have to appoint a receiver was absolutely false. Judge Noyes said he did not know what business McKenzie wanted to Nome further than that he heard he took a pump up there for a New York corporation.

BALANCE DUE ON M'KINLEY'S PAY.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—A statement of account was made today by the Auditor of the State Department, charging the late President McKinley issued to him on account of salary from the beginning of his incumbency of the office of President to the day of his death, and crediting him with the amount due him on account of salary.

BRITTON MAKES REPLY.

Calls Down the President of the Board of Trustees of Alameda.

Says That the Oakland Gas, Light and Heat Company Was Done an Injustice.

ALAMEDA, Nov. 12.—The Alameda Board last evening contained the following:

Oakland, Cal., Nov. 9, 1931.
Editor "Inland"—Dear Sir: Being particularly adverse to newspaper or other controversy concerning the Alameda Lighting Plant of your city, I have often permitted statements made concerning it to pass without question, even when they were extreme distortions of the truth, but as the statements made by the Hon. Joseph F. Forde, President of the Board of City Trustees at a banquet of the Board of Trade of your city held on the 7th inst., concerning costs of your public lighting, in comparison with the costs in the city of Oakland, are calculated to do both to this city and the company which I represent an injustice, I cannot permit them to pass without a challenge as to their correctness.

Being convinced of the propriety and veracity of Mr. Forde's statement, I am bound to the belief that he has been purposely misled by designing individuals, as his published statements are at serious variance with facts.

I make the following positive denials of his statements:
First—The city of Oakland does not pay $20,000 per annum for 500 lamps. The Treasurer's books of this city will show that for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1931, the cost of lighting was but $23,000. Mr. Forde's statement is quoted in the press as saying that the lamps for Oakland street lights are incandescent. This is an evident error, as all the lamps used in the streets of Oakland are of 2,000 candle power.

Second—The statement that on the basis of the price paid by the city of Oakland for lighting the Alameda street lighting would have cost $27,000 for the past year is false. Oakland pays for its lighting 28-10 cents per lamp per hour. Taking the number of lamps Alameda uses, and the number of hours that each of them burned during the year, they should have cost the city of Alameda but $9,500 for the past year, on the basis of the Oakland rate. Mr. Forde admits to a cost of $20,000. It is plain that the city of Alameda is paying over twice as much as the city of Oakland.

I submit in the spirit of fairness that city officials should properly inform themselves before making public statements that tend to damage innocent parties. I am not now nor have I ever been an enemy of the Municipal Light Plant of your city, but have on more than one occasion commended it, and further desire in no way to interfere with it or its management, but I would be false to the trust reposed in me, did I not correct misstatements tending to injure my constituents.

Your own, will bear out the statements herein made by me, and are open to the investigation of any interested citizen, and are not made for any other reason than that justice be done.

JOHN A. BRITTON,
President Oakland Gas, Light and Heat Company.

The Pattosien Co. conduct the largest, most modern and most attractive home-furnishing mart in the West.

Under its splendid economic provisions and advantages thousands of homes have been furnished, everything being provided to make home a place of beauty, a place of comfort, a place of rest and a place of refined life. For all civilizing and saving influences, society depends more on happy hearts than on laws and libraries, schools and colleges. Out of good homes comes the good element of the community, the thrifty polite classes; out of neglected homes comes the bad element, the depraved, the vagabond and the ruffian classes, the tramps, the hobos, the paupers, the unfortunate and the malefactors. With refined homes for all, as said on a recent occasion, there wouldn't be need of so many reformatories and asylums, so many workhouses and poorhouses; there wouldn't be so many people in jail; there wouldn't be so many people hung; there wouldn't be so many lost children—the masses would be an innumerable nobility, with length of days, wisdom, temperance, riches and happiness. And so much depends on how the house is furnished. Every beautiful piece of furniture in the dwelling, from the shining range in the kitchen to the comely sideboard, splendid brass bed or polished parlor table, is a mute teacher of decorum and civility, a monitor to good manners and beautiful deportment. And to place these cheerful appurtenances of the hearth and home within reach of all is the occasion of the great anniversary sale now in progress.

FRAUDS IN EDUCATION.

A complaint made by the Ancient Order of Hibernians against the Catholic University at Washington calls attention to a subterfuge too often practiced by institutions of learning—the diversion of funds donated for one purpose to some other purpose. The A. O. H. gave the University $50,000 to maintain a chair of the Irish language, the object being to revive interest in the ancient tongue of Erin and afford facilities for studying it. An eminent Irish scholar profoundly versed in the Irish language was selected to fill the chair so endowed. Recently, it is claimed that the Professor has been dismissed and another selected to fill the place who is totally unfamiliar with the Irish language and utterly incompetent to teach it, which, of course, means the practical discontinuance of Irish as a branch of the University study. To put it plainly, the new professor draws a salary for teaching Irish, which he does not teach, but in reality teaches something else. The chair of Irish is thus diverted from the purpose for which it was endowed. Naturally, the members of the A. O. H. are indignant and are making vigorous protests. They demand the re-institution of the Irish scholar or a return of the money.

This incident illustrates many such that have occurred. Yale University practices a cheat by pretending to maintain a Department of Agriculture, for which a large sum is drawn annually from the Government. All over the country are requests to colleges that are not doing as the testators prescribed. The money is taken on condition that it be expended for a certain specific purpose, and is then deliberately expended for another, the fraud being covered up by some sort of pretense. These fraudulent practices ought to cease. It may well be doubted if the study of Irish is of practical value. No doubt the managers of the University have other ways of expending the money to greater educational advantage. Nevertheless, they took this money, pledging themselves to do a certain thing with it, and they are deliberately violating the successful condition of the gift, just as Yale is in effect swindling the Federal Government out of a round sum each year.

THE UNSPEAKABLE TURK.

But for the fact that France would probably not have got such speedy satisfaction from Turkey, England was too busy to make the customary bluff that she has usually made when any other power attempted to call the "unspeakable Turk" to account. And France showed more resolution than she has manifested since the war with Germany.

The civilized world should give thanks to France for bringing the Porte to an accounting. Backed by British diplomacy, which has been peculiarly effective in this direction since the Crimean war, the Sultan has systematically lied and blustered and beaten his creditors and murdered his Christian subjects. He has kept faith with nobody, and his degrading government has steadily become a greater political and moral stench to European civilization. Again and again have different nations demanded redress for outrages on their subjects only to be defeated by shifty lies and impudant resistance. There was the European Concert of 1878 and the guns of British men of war to frighten off anybody who would attempt to rebuke him.

But England has her hands full and can't play the big bully for the Turk any longer. Germany wants to be friendly with Russia because of complications in China, and France has taken the fit in her teeth and gone after Turkey rough shod. It was a good piece of business and gives promise that a way will be found to stop the murder and robbery of Christians in Armenia.

Great Britain, with 250,000 of her best troops engaged in throttling out an insignificant band of Dutchmen in South Africa must needs look on and say nothing. She got up steam in some of her ships and made a dumb show, but the Frenchman paid no heed but went on brining the Turk to terms. The Sultan settled, and England has had to put up with an implied affront that would have galled British pride and set London to singing jingo songs.

This is the result of getting into a false position. For more than fifty years England has been the chief prop to the rotten Ottoman monarchy and the host of liquidated intrigues. Because she was afraid that the Dardanelles would fall into the hands of Russia she has protected the Porte through thick and thin. Because she would not let others call the Sultan to account she was powerless to call him to account herself. In effect the most enlightened nation in Europe became the ally and defender of the most cruel, corrupt and despotic. It is a shameful chapter in English history and was so stigmatized by Gladstone. But the spell is broken.

Admiral Sampson was more successful in getting into the record of the Court of Inquiry than he was in getting into the fight at Santiago. Yet he was very anxious to keep out of the last fracas.

It is said that the gamblers of New York turned against Tammany in the last fight because Police Chief Davery protected a syndicate of gamblers who made everybody else pay tribute. Even rats will desert a sinking ship. But if the gamblers did desert Tammany it is only another illustration of how intolerable his rule had become. A more savage commentary could scarcely be made.

The fee feels called upon to sound a note of triumph because forty-five new houses have been erected in Sacramento in a twelve month. Hah! As many as that have been built in a month for the past year in this town of Oakland. And there are few empty houses to rent, hark ye!

William Jennings Bryan's paper is commencing yet.

ANNUAL DEBATE AT THE UNIVERSITY.

The annual debate between Hastings College of the Law and the Students Congress will take place at St. Paul Hall, Berkeley, on Friday night, November 16th. The question to be debated is: "Resolved: That the policy of disfranchising the Negroes of the South is wise."

Hastings College of the Law will be represented by Hugh O'Neill of this city and W. K. Rothchild and J. L. Kennedy of San Francisco. Mr. O'Neill has distinguished himself as an orator on several occasions. He being one of the speakers on the Hastings' team that defeated the University of Nevada in a joint debate last spring. Mr. Rothchild demonstrated his ability on the last debate between the Law College and the Students Congress. Mr. Kennedy, the third member of the team is recognized as a weighty and powerful speaker. The team is considered a strong one and much interest is being manifested in the outcome of the debate. The public is cordially invited.

PRAYER WEEK AT THE Y. M. C. A. HALL.

This week is observed as a week of prayer by all the Young Men's Christian Associations throughout the world. The meetings will be held at the Oakland Association building the following evenings at 8 o'clock sharp.

Thursday—Subject: The King's Highway. If you love Me, ye will keep My commandments.

Friday—Subject: The King's Return glorified in His saints.

These meetings will be short, not longer than thirty minutes, and will be conducted by good leaders.

Every member is requested to come around to at least one meeting, or every one, if possible.

The Board of Directors of the Y. M. C. A. held their monthly meeting at the Association building, after adjournment. The Board were present in a body and had charge of the opening meeting of the week of prayer.

OAKLAND YOUNG LADIES HONORED.

The notable distinction of being chosen to sing with the Grand Grand Opera Company has been accorded to five Oakland young ladies, namely: Miss Anne Louise Daniels, Miss Edie McGuire, Miss Minnie Phillips, Miss Ruth Colleson and Miss Dorothy McLean. The young ladies are possessors of good voices and were chosen solely because of the reputations that they have made in local dramatic music. Miss Daniels has been given a thorough musical education and has been offered a position with the Bostonians, but she declined. Miss McGuire has shown ability in organizing several amateur operatic performances in Alameda.

Miss Phillips, Miss Colleson and Miss McLean have taken part in several concerts and amateur musical affairs.

BIBLE READING IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

The introduction of Bible reading in the public schools is sure to lead to interminable contention. The advocates of the measure pretend that all they seek is to bring the literary quality of the Bible before the people, but this is only a subterfuge. The propagation of the literary quality of the Bible is not suffering. The churches and the Sunday schools and scores of special religious societies are expounding the Bible at all times and in all places. The introduction of Bible reading in the public schools is full of danger and will be the first step towards religious teaching; then the sects will break in and then will come the end of our great free system of public education.—Sacramento News.

BOGUS CHECK MAN IS AGAIN AT WORK.

Several business colleges in San Francisco have been swindled during the past week by a wily individual calling himself a nephew of one of J. Dawson Alberts, a supposed man of wealth and also a guest at the Hotel Metropole in this city.

The police are making a careful search for the bogus check manipulator and have a good description of his identity to help in his apprehension. He tried to pass bogus checks in the First National Bank.

IN THE REALM OF SOCIETY

Chabot-Dieckmann Wedding Will Be the Principal Event of the Week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilson have taken the Albright house on Twenty-seventh avenue, Fruitvale, for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Heverin have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Annie Evangeline Heverin, to Robert Edward Maddern. The young people are well known on this side of the bay, especially in musical circles. Miss Heverin is a graduate, with the class of '97, of St. Francis de Sales' School and is an accomplished musician. The groom-to-be is a son of the late Henry Maddern and a cousin of the noted actress, Minnie Maddern Fiske. He has a pleasing baritone voice and was for several years identified with the choir of St. Paul's Church, and also with that of Christ Church in Alameda. The wedding will be a quiet home affair, on account of the groom's recent bereavement, and will take place on November 27. The Rev. Thomas McSweeney will officiate.

After the honeymoon the young people will return to their own homes, which is now rapidly being completed. Just opposite the bride's present home on Twenty-first street.

The King's Daughters will be at home to their friends next Thursday evening in the parlors of the First Presbyterian Church. There will be a short musical program, and refreshments will be served. Two "missionary boxes," which are annually sent by the King's Daughters to the Hoopa Indians at Hoopa, in this State, and to the Nez Perce Indians in Lapwai, Idaho, will also be on display. The reception committee is composed of the Home Mission chairman—Mrs. E. E. Baker, Miss Augusta Klose and Miss Edna Gray. They will be assisted by other officers of the society.

The social event of the week in Oakland will be a wedding that has been looked forward to for some weeks with great interest, that of Miss Josephine Chabot to Henry Dieckmann. A great many affairs have been given in honor of the bride-to-be, and about 200 guests have received invitations to the wedding, which will be celebrated at the residence of Mrs. E. E. Chabot, on Eleventh and Madison streets. Father McSweeney of St. Francis de Sales' Church will perform the ceremony, while the bridal party stands under a shower of white and yellow chrysanthemums. Miss Chabot will be attended by two bridesmaids, her sisters, the Misses Catherine and Claire Chabot. Her gown is of heavy white satin, with a veil of real point lace.

The remaining rooms in the house are to be decorated in pink and green, special care being given to the dining room, where will be the bride's table and that of her mother. After their bridal tour the young people are planning to live at the Chabot residence, where a new wing is being constructed for them. Miss Chabot has lived in Oakland for many years and has many friends here. She is especially fortunate in being the possessor of a well-cultivated voice. Mr. Dieckmann is a business man of San Francisco and is well known in social circles on both sides of the bay, being a member of the Dieckmann family of East Oakland.

This evening Dr. Frank W. Simpson, who coached the victorious California football team, will be married to Miss Anne M. Mason, a prominent young woman of Berkeley. The ceremony will be performed in the First Congregational Church at 2 1/2 o'clock. The pastor, George E. Hatch, the pastor. After the wedding a reception will be given to the bridal party and intimate friends at the home of Miss Mason's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Mason, 2208 Dwight way, Berkeley.

Miss Janet Mason, the sister of Miss Mason, will be maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Nellie Simpson, Miss Ella Clark, Miss Mattie Leonard and Miss Pearl Jackson, all of Berkeley. Lloyd A. Wemble, captain of the year's Varsity eleven, will be the best man. The ushers will be Dr. Harry Alderson, Dr. William Moore, William Mason and Orval Overall. Quentin Mason, cousin of the bride, and Ruby Simpson, sister of the groom, will lead the bridal party as ribbon-bearers.

Miss Mason is a graduate of the Berkeley High School, with the class of 1899.

Dr. Simpson entered the University of California with the class of '99, taking the special course preparatory to medicine, and was graduated from the medical department in 1900. For a year and a half he was resident physician at Byron Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Lefkowitz announce the engagement of their daughter, Edith, to David Berovich of Oakland. They will be pleased to receive their friends at their residence, 355 First avenue, on Sunday, November 17, from 2 to 5.

PECK'S THEATER IS SCORING A SUCCESS.

This change of program this week at Peck's Broadway Theater has resulted in large audiences.

The theatre has been crowded every afternoon and evening and is growing in popular favor every day. Mr. Peck apparently knows exactly what the people like and he is giving them the best show ever seen here for the price of admission charged. Such enterprise on behalf of the manager deserves encouragement.

Mr. Peck has no reason to regret his advent in the theatrical business in Oakland. Among those who are resolving the public's approval this week are Al. Cliff, the clever tenor, who has made a hit the favorite contralto, Miss Carrie Canfield, and William Bryant, the Ethiopian comedian.

The juveniles, Russell and Clough give the "Alabama Coo" in a clever way. There is a new installment of moving pictures, including Carrie Nation wrecking the "Sinner's" saloon in Tonopa, Kansas. This performance as a whole is excellent.

There were a number of passengers on the car, but none of them were injured.

Wherein our Millinery Excels

IN THAT INDESCRIBABLE POINT—TASTE

Chas. Frohman relates that when in England he heard an old Northumberland man asked a boy:

Where be ye goin' Jack?

The boy: "Beant going nowhere."

"Ye must be goin' somewhere."

"No I beant. I am a coming back."

Equally fine and fundamental is the difference between our millinery and the ordinary kind. That we show a much larger or more varied line, may or may not be so.

That's not the point.

Wherein our exhibit unquestionably excels, as others assure us, is the taste shown in its selection.

MAYOR MAKES PLEA FOR THE NIGHT SCHOOL.

Asks the Members of the Council to Vote Sum to Keep Doors Open.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE CITY COUNCIL.

The Council met as a Committee of the Whole last night. There were present Councilmen Bishop, Eyer, Courtney, Dornin, Fitzgerald, Ruch, Wallace, Wikson and President Schaffer.

While the Councilmen were waiting to convene as a Committee of the Whole, each member present was served with a copy of a modified restraining order, issued by Judge Morrow of the Circuit Court of San Francisco. The modified order permits the Councilmen to transfer from the various funds all moneys in excess of $25,000, which is the amount due the Contra Costa Water Company.

A communication from Mayor Phelan and the Board of Supervisors of San Francisco was read, inviting the City Council to send five delegates to the State Convention to be held in Metropolitan Temple on November 21 for the purpose of framing a memorial to Congress petitioning for the exclusion of the Chinese. The communication was referred to President Schaffer with power to act. He announced he would appoint the five delegates to the convention within the next few days.

CITY ATTORNEY ASKS FOR AID. City Attorney James A. Johnson, then asked permission to address the Committee relative to the appointment of an additional stenographer to assist in preparing the bill of exceptions in the appeal of the water rate case. He said the present stenographer was filling his duties as well as anyone could, but the task was of such magnitude that he was of the opinion that it would be advisable to appoint another stenographer to assist in the work.

Johnson said at the present rate of progress it would take eight months to prepare the bill of exceptions, whereas, with the assistance of an additional stenographer the work could be accomplished in four months.

Johnson asked that $400 be appropriated by resolution from the General Fund. He was willing that the stenographer be appointed by the Council. No action was taken on the subject.

MAYOR BARSTOW APPEALS.

Mayor Anson Barstow appeared before the Council and asked that a resolution appropriating $400 be passed to keep the Evening Grammar school open until January 1, 1902. The resolution of the Mayor was referred to the Finance Committee, which meets next Thursday evening.

In support of the Mayor's appeal, the resolution of the Mayor had the following to say: "I have come before the Council to ask that $400 be transferred from the General Fund to the school fund to keep the Evening Grammar school open until January 1, 1902.

"When the question of keeping the schools open was first brought to my attention, I took it in hand and sought to obtain a solution to the problem. "The first thing I suggested to the Board of Education was that the physical culture and cooking schools be discontinued, and the money thus saved applied to the Evening schools. This plan was found to be impractical. I then suggested that the school teachers contribute $1 per month to the support of the schools. This plan also was found to be far from feasible.

"The next plan which presented itself was to request the Board of Education to disburse with certain supplies and appropriate the money thus saved to the maintenance of the Evening schools. By cutting out the supplies I figured there would be a saving of $1,200, but when the gentlemen from the School Department got through their figuring they stated the school fund would be $3,000 short at the end of the year.

"I still suggested another proposition, that of closing both the Evening and High schools when the school fund was exhausted. This would mean the closing of the High school about a week earlier than usual. The High school receives about $5,000 a year. Closing the school one week would give about $2,750 to the Evening schools, or sufficient to carry them over for the year. This proposition was also refused by the Board of Education.

"I then offered to pay the expenses of the schools for two weeks. The schools will close next Monday night. I come to you gentlemen and ask that $400 be appropriated to keep the schools open until January 1. I am confident I can pass the hat and obtain the required sum. One

HE SAVED MANY FREE FIGHT AT HAYWARDS.

Large Crowd Witnesses the Contest in the Rear of a Saloon.

HAYWARDS, Nov. 12.—That the Haywards Electric Light Works and the agricultural works adjoining are not a mass of wreckage now, with a probable loss of valuable life, is due to the vigilance of the night watchman, Edward McKinney, who is in the employ of the electric light company.

Last evening McKinney appeared at the works just a few minutes before the day shift came to a close, and was surprised to find that the water was so low in the boiler that, at most, a couple of minutes the boiler would have exploded. The result of such an explosion would mean the demolition of the works and undoubtedly the sacrifice of the lives of the people engaged in the works.

McKinney acted in the spur of the moment and shut down the machinery immediately and thus happily prevented a catastrophe.

He then sought for and found the fireman, Thomas Lane, whom he charged with responsibility for the danger of an explosion.

Lane assumed responsibility for the condition of the boiler. Warm words passed between the men and, finally, blows were struck, Lane being more or less severely punished.

As soon as the boiler had cooled down water was allowed to enter it in sufficient quantity and the machinery was again set in motion.

Councilman has offered me $10 a month, the salary he receives from the city. But I don't believe you gentlemen will fall for it."

The Mayor then introduced the following resolution:

"Whereas, the Board of Education, under date of October 28, 1901, reports that, owing to a recent decision of the Supreme Court, it is found impossible to pay the expenses of the Evening Grammar school out of the State and county funds, and as yet no funds from the State have been received from the State Department of Education; and

"Whereas, the said Board of Education, after reciting expenses already incurred, and estimated expenses for the balance of the school year, less expenses previously paid from county funds, and receipts from delinquent taxes, and taxes of 1901-1902, reports the sum of $2,658.10 needed to maintain said Evening school to end of the school year, and requested this Council to provide said sum; and

"Whereas, this Council, after realizing the duty of making said report, the importance of maintaining said Evening school, and considered it of more importance than some branches in the manual training department of the High school, yet could not at that time, owing to the peculiar condition of the city's finances, provide the sum of $2,658.10; and

"Whereas, the reduction of income in probable contest of the tax levy, in justice to the needs of other departments of the city government and creditors of same, transfer the sum asked for; and

"Whereas, it now appears that the income from the tax levy is not likely to be affected by contests of same, and the total revenue for the city being increased by unaccepted sums on account of receipt of delinquent taxes of previous years; and

"Whereas, it is the desire of the Council in every way and as far as the city finances will warrant to continue the Evening Grammar school as long as possible, and the sum of $400 is now available for such purpose; therefore be it

"Resolved, That the sum of $400 be and is hereby appropriated from the General Fund of 1901-02 for maintaining the Evening Grammar school to January 1, 1902, and said sum for the said purpose is hereby transferred to the school fund of 1901-1902."

The matter was referred to the Auditing and Finance Committee, which will meet next Thursday.

WILL MOVE THE MILL TO OAKLAND.

ELMHURST, Nov. 12.—Frederick Dahl, proprietor of the Elmhurst Plating Mill, is making preparations to move his establishment to Oakland, where he will locate at the corner of First and Franklin streets.

Mr. Dahl calculates to begin the work of moving about the first of January. The reason of the change is due to the expansion of business and the inability to handle the work at the present location. The mill is now located at the corner of First and Franklin streets, and the local people do not like to see the mill go, and some effort may be made to induce Mr. Dahl to remain in this place.

WILL GIVE A DANCE.

The Sale of Those Relics of the Civil War

Is in full swing, and you ought to see how the people buy them, many of our patrons taking from 6 to 10 guns.

There Are Thousands of Old U. S. RIFLES, CARBINES AND REVOLVERS

here for you to choose from—weapons upon which the fate of our nation once depended, and among which hovers a halo of historical reminiscences that make them to patriots and collectors a prize possession.

FOR PURPOSES OF DECORATION the old dogs of war are especially valuable, particularly because the supply is limited and can never again be replaced.

WARRELICS

Some of these guns cost the U. S. GOVERNMENT as high as thirty dollars each, and you can buy them at the unheard of low price of $1.75, with twenty cartridges thrown in.

"QUEEN OF HAYTI" AT THE MACDONOUGH.

"The Queen of Hayti," the big musical comedy, opened at the Macdonough last night. It is vastly different from any similar style of attraction that will be seen here this season. It numbers forty-eight of the best colored entertainers in America, each one of them popular in their respective lines.

"Unlucky" has a plot sufficiently intricate to admit of many surprises. A number of high class vaudeville specialties are introduced and worked in so nicely that you think they are a part of the comedy takes place.

The action of the comedy takes place on the Isle of Hayti, during the war with the French in 1854, and the eccentric types of characters found there are pictured. The action is quick, the dialogue and situation amusing throughout and the construction of the play is one of the puny presenting the play is one of the strongest colored organizations traveling. The performance will be repeated this evening.

TRAVELING AGENTS ARE IN SESSION.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 12.—The twenty-ninth annual convention of the American Association of Traveling Passenger Agents met in business session at 12 o'clock today at the Chamber of Commerce building. One hundred and six were present and twenty applicants were admitted to membership during the meeting.

The meeting was called to order by President J. A. Gurnigan, who introduced Mayor Snyder. The Mayor welcomed the visitors in a happy speech in which he told them they were in "The Land of Welcome," and to "get in and enjoy the good things provided for their especial benefit."

The secretary read a number of communications from Buffalo, Philadelphia and City of Mexico, inviting the association to hold its convention in 1902 in those cities. One from May or Ashbridge of Philadelphia extended a cordial invitation to the City of Brotherly Love which found favor with the delegates and Philadelphia was unanimously agreed upon as the place for the next meeting. The date will be fixed by the Executive Committee.

Nominations for officers of the association for the ensuing year came up after the selection of a place of meeting next year. T. E. Fitzgerald of the Texas Pacific Railroad with headquarters at Los Angeles was nominated "strictly" passenger man. Mr. Fitzgerald is chairman of the Executive Committee and also chairman of the Entertainment Committee, and his candidacy found much favor. John C. Clark of the Illinois Central Railroad at Boston, Mass., however, was placed in nomination as a joint passenger and freight man and his qualifications so strongly set forth that the convention was stampeded to him and Fitzgerald's name was withdrawn and Clark's election made unanimous. T. P. Fitzgerald was unanimously elected president. L. W. Landman of the Hoeking Valley Road, Detroit, Mich., was elected secretary-treasurer without opposition.

NEW CONSTITUTION IS RATIFIED.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 12.—The new constitution has been ratified by a large majority. It will probably reach 2000 and will not fall below 5000. The anti-ratificationists charge fraud in a number of counties, notably Jefferson, Dallas and Pickens. General Shelly, chairman of the anti-ratificationists, claims that he has won the fight, but rather indicates that he does not expect to have it so decided. He states, however, that he will push the fight to the bitter end. All things told, the new constitution has been adopted.

REFEREE SILER SEES JEFF.

SURPRISED AT OUR CITY.

THE TURF.

Only one favorite poked the length of his body home in front yesterday afternoon at Emeryville, and the talent, the faithful and the wise were shorn of what money was taken to the track. It was the most disastrous day of the season for the public, and the bookmakers garnered all the coin in sight. Joe Harlan headed the successful punters with $2,700, the largest sum won in a single afternoon since the season opened. The others won all the way from $2,000 down to about $500, which was the smallest amount any book won. As there were fourteen books doing business, the amount lost by the bettors must have aggregated $20,000.

The followers of Baldwin's stable had a great day of it. Silva Cruz, at 15 to 1; Escalante, with 5 to 1 on offer and Reina de Cuba with as good as 8 to 1 to be had all crossing the wire the easiest kind of winners, and all leading from the very first jumps. Readers of this column were cautioned several times since the opening day about the Baldwin horses and the way they were rounding to form. And it may not be out of place to say now that yesterday's successes will not be the last heard from the horses carrying the Maltese cross. They will be hard to beat in almost any kind of company this winter, as the Baldwin colors never were better represented than at the present time, at least not on the local race courses.

With the jockeys, Ransom was easily the star of the afternoon's racing. He won all three races for the Baldwin stable and was third with Oscar Tolle. Ransom is a midsize, but can ride a great deal better than the wise people of the turf are willing to credit. At the Los Angeles meeting this fall he was severely criticized for some of his riding, but when the thirteen days' racing were over he easily led all the successful riders in number of winning mounts. Of the other riding talent, J. Woods, J. Matthews and Horace each scored once. William O'Connor could not land a winner, although he was second three times and third once. Ransom was second once and Burlington had two seconds credited to him.

Big Jim Garland, the Emeryville heavy-weight, who once trained for E. J. (Lucy) Baldwin, has a good memory and both Baldwin and his trainer, W. J. Spies, were made aware of the fact yesterday at the cost of about $400. When Garland left the employ of Baldwin several years ago, there was a balance due the big rider of the wages which Baldwin had not settled up to yesterday. To bring the Santa Anita man to terms, Garland started in last spring to bid up every horse owned by Baldwin with a bidding ring. Spies interceded in Baldwin's behalf, and on Spies' promise to Garland that the back wages would be paid promptly, the bidding up was stopped. But Spies never made good his promise, and yesterday Garland again started in to bid up the Baldwin nags.

Silva Cruz, winner of the first race, got a boost of $200 above his starting price, and in the last race Reina de Cuba was hoisted a like amount, Jim Garland doing the bidding up on both occasions.

Bangor's rush at the wire yesterday in the race won by Horton was dazzling. He sukked most of the way, but when he got ready to run he simply flew. He is in good shape now, and will about win his next time out.

The race run by Articulate yesterday was not near so bad as it looks, as a matter of fact it was about the best race of the day, and the speedy

WILL THE BOARD YIELD.

Saloon Keepers Offer to Give the Town an Income of $2,000 a Year.

BERKELEY, Nov. 12.—The formal application for a license to conduct a saloon within the mile limit of the State University, together with an offer of $2,000 annually, furnished a sensation at last evening's meeting of the Town Board of Trustees. After holding a whispered consultation with Thomas Dowd, a West End representative, President Marston announced the proposition, which it was afterward learned, had been made by Samuel Fisher, an ex-soldier, who now conducts a saloon in West Berkeley. President Marston and Town Attorney Hayne were appointed to look into the legality of the matter. The ordering of considerable street work and the payment of many bills constituted the remainder of the evening's business.

The following street work was ordered done: To construct a six-foot sidewalk on the north side of Berkeley way between Grant and Grove streets; to construct a six-foot sidewalk on the west side of Piedmont avenue between Dwight way and Kearney street; to grade, curb and macadamize Lincoln street between Milvia street and Shattuck avenue; to construct a six-foot sidewalk on the north side of Blake street between Telegraph and Shattuck avenues.

Upon the request of Trustee Dowd, a sidewalk was ordered on the south side of Folger avenue. It was stated by Trustee Hoff that the Pacific Coast Lumber and Manufacturing Company had asked for the improvement of Gilman street. He moved that permission be granted the company to put in a thirty foot street from Second street to the water line.

The petition of property owners to grade Rose street from the east line of Miramonte street back to Sacramento street was granted. Petition to improve Derby street between Telegraph avenue and College avenue was also granted.

A protest against street work on Camella street was filed by Mary Frederick, David Jacks, H. M. Landsberger and George E. Plummer. A thirty days' extension of time on the San Pablo and University avenue street was granted Lindgren & Hicks.

A telephone was ordered to be placed in the Beacon Fire House. Town Attorney Hayne was ordered to draw up an ordinance to close twenty feet on Blake street from Grant street west.

A wooden sidewalk was ordered laid in Prospect Place. Several objections were made by Attorney Graber to the signing of a contract on Fairview street. Town Attorney Hayne believed the proceeding to be legal. Trustee Staats talked that the people on Fairview street had secured a cheap job and that the contractor was endeavoring to back out of his agreement. No action was taken.

Robert J. Carter was awarded the work of grading Parker street while the work of macadamizing was given to the Oakland Paving Company. W. T. Schmidt was awarded the contract for grading Spruce street. The following bills were ordered paid upon recommendation of finance committee.

In several instances special trains have been hired. The orders for seats have been so large that the management of the club have every reason to believe that the Mechanics' Pavilion, that grand old structure, will be packed to its utmost capacity the night of the contest.

Ruhlin continues to do good work at the Six Mile House, and shows more confidence perhaps than any man who has ever faced a champion. He feels confident of his ability to dispose of Jeffries. The latter is now at Oakland, the home of his trainer, Billy Delaney, and takes daily strolls before and after his work at the gymnasium of the Reliance Athletic Club. His massive form and elastic step are commented upon by everybody. The champion boxer, as he is better known, has been here for some time, and he said: "I will take some of the confidence out of Ruhlin before we fight half a dozen rounds or I am a shad."

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—Now that the champion Jeffries has reached the city of the coming battle with Ruhlin, interest in the fight is increasing every day. Heretofore contests in San Francisco were patronized solely by residents of this city and persons living around the bay; but in this case orders for seats have been received from all points in California and Nevada. The special parties have been arranged so as to take advantage of the low rates offered by the railroad com-

NEWS NOTES.

Spike Sullivan was defeated at Buffalo last evening by Cubby Spies. The bout took place before the International Athletic Club at Fort Erie and went 20 rounds. Sullivan was badly punished.

Danny Dougherty, the sparring partner of Terry McGovern, was knocked out in the second round of what was to be a fifteen round go by Harry Brown before the West End Club in St. Louis last night. The fight was savage from the sound of the gong and was ended in the second round by a vicious right hand upper cut. Dougherty was out five minutes.

Ralph Newhall, the Los Angeles Golf expert, was defeated in a championship game on the Cincinnati (Ohio) Golf Club links yesterday by Ralph Peterson of Cincinnati. The score was 52 to 55.

A six day go-as-you-please championship ship heat and too race was begun in the Old City Hall, Philadelphia, Sunday night. Twenty-two men started, including all the champions of America and England. The first 24 hours found Cavanaugh ahead of what was to be a record of 120 miles and 8 laps nearly half mile) for 23 hours and five minutes tramp. The best previous time was 120 and about one quarter miles for twenty-four hours held by George Cartwright of Philadelphia.

Slasque is the favorite for the great stake that will open coursing on the open plain near Petaluma. The town of Petaluma is filled with coursing men from all parts of the country and a great meeting is sure to result. The coursing began this morning.

GRAND OPERA A LARGE SUCCESS.

Opening Night of the Metropolitan Company Will Long Be Remembered.

Many People From Oakland Attended the Grand Performance Last Evening.

Richard Wagner's immortal heritage to musical posterity, "Lohengrin," was given a magnificent production last night at the Grand Opera House in San Francisco by the entire Metropolitan Opera House Company of New York.

Emma Eames, De Reske, Van Dyck and Damrosch would make any grand opera presentation a notable one and last night's triumph will play pale the former editions of this classical Wagnerian creation in the Pacific Coast metropolises.

Society was spick and span in robes which were in keeping with the gorgeousness of the event and the brilliant assemblage of fair women and well groomed men was one that will live in the memory of the oldest Wagnerian enthusiast.

From stage to lobby the opera house was aglow with brilliance and the jewels of the fair sex lent eclat to the occasion. Eames is Elsa was a revelation to her music-loving auditors and De Reske as the king was a revelation in vocal effect.

Damrosch and his monty baton kept precision in note and action in orchestra and on stage and his results were a series of unbroken successes.

After the performance of this grand opera, the rattle of carriage wheels told of the transference of this radiant gathering of local society leaders to the Palace Hotel Grill room and other places.

Tonight at 8 o'clock the curtain will arise on a presentation of "The Huguenots" with Gadsdi, Homer and Suzanne Adams, Journet, Scotti and Ed De Reske in the leading roles. Tomorrow "La Traviata" will be produced and on Thursday "Tannhauser" with Eames will attract.

Among the guests last night were: Mrs. Camille d'Arville Crellin, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Williams Jr., Mrs. Phoebe Hearst, Mrs. George W. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Crellin, Mrs. Frank Moffitt, Jefferson Moffitt, Mrs. L. A. Phillips, Mrs. J. Parmenter Martin, Mrs. E. R. Tott, Miss Burnham, Mrs. D. T. Curtis, Miss Ruth Dugham, Miss Florence Dunham, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Gunst, Mr. and Mrs. Goodall, Miss Ella Goodall.

TREASURER TAYLOR COLLECTING TAXES.

City Treasurer Felton Taylor has announced that he will keep his office open, beginning with to-day from 9 o'clock in the morning until 9 o'clock at night, for the convenience of taxpayers. This will be a great service to many business and professional men, who find it next to impossible to leave their business during the day.

During the eleven days that Taylor has been receiving taxes, $55,000 has been paid in on the first installment, leaving approximately $236,000 yet to be collected between now and the 25th of the month, when taxes will become delinquent. This means that taxes must come into the treasurer's office at the rate of about $20,000 a day.

The highest figure yet reached in the days receipts is $9,150. By keeping the office open until 9 o'clock, Treasurer Taylor expects to be able to gather in all the taxes by the 25th of November.

POLICE COURT.

Police Court, November 12.—Carrie Bailey; drunk, $10 or twenty days; Emma Wallace, same, judgment suspended; Martin O'Neill, same, $10 or five days; Richard Chapman, John Brown, same, $5 or three days; John Kean, Richard Conn, same, November 13 for sentence; Jesse Allen, Jas. McCarthy, Jas. Sadtler, John Monroe, Wm. Stultz, vagrancy, six months in County Jail; Jas. Greene, Jas. Donnelly, battery, no complaint; Frank Enos, Abraham Williams, petty larceny, continued for sentence; L. Monnet, gambling, November 12 for trial; C. E. Quigley, same, November 13 for trial.

SIX MONTHS IS A LIMIT.

Oakland is a Very Poor Place for the Tramps to Spend the Winter.

Judge Smith, in the Police Court, sentenced five of the tramp burglars recently captured by Chief of Police Hodgkins to six months in the County Jail for vagrancy, this morning in the Police Court.

The names of the men sentenced are Jesse Allen, Jas. McCarthy, Jas. Sadtler, John Monroe, Wm. Stultz. Judge Smith imposed the heaviest sentence within his power. The convicted men are said by the police to be implicated in the numerous burglaries committed about two weeks ago.

Judge Smith imposed the sentence as a warning to other hard characters that Oakland is a poor wintering place for tramps.

TWO POLICEMEN WILL BE RETIRED.

Policemen B. R. Phillips and H. N. Nedderman, are both entitled to be placed on the retired list. The Police and Fire Commissioners will meet tomorrow, but the Chief of Police has not indicated in his report on the eligibility of the men, consequently they will be given a small leave on life yet.

It is probable that both men will be given two weeks service yet before they are placed on the retired list. The Commissioners took steps two weeks ago with a view of retiring Phillips and Nedderman, but the Chief of Police has not indicated in his report on the eligibility of the men, consequently they will be given a small leave on life yet.

Vulcan Furnaces

Successfully Running

The recent marked successes of the VULCAN SMELTING AND REFINING COMPANY in the operation of their furnaces have created considerable excitement in the mining and metallurgical world. The secret process is an innovation in the methods for reducing ores by the smelting process, in that they do away with all machinery used in connection with the blast type of furnace, and substitute a positive blast, using a suction draught caused by the introduction of a jet of steam, introduced immediately beneath the gas outlets of the stack, thus forming a vacuum immediately over the smelting zone, the intake of air being through an annular opening all around the furnace, between the crucible and the upper part of the stack and immediately underneath the smelting zone, thus giving a generally distributed roasting atmosphere permeating the entire charge in the furnace, the result of which is the wonderful oxidizing action, which permits of taking raw sulphide ores as they come from the mine (without roasting) and burning them in the furnace, making use of the fuel values of the sulphur as a reducing agent.

During the Nevada State Fair at Reno, held from the 15th to the 25th of last September, the Vulcan Company had one of its plants on exhibition just outside the Fair Grounds, and treated all ores offered for treatment for test runs. Among the ores treated were the following: A copper carbonate ore, carrying about 11 per cent copper and about 42 per cent silica; 10 per cent coke was used, with a steam pressure of 40 pounds. Furnace ran fast and hot and product was a bullion assaying 55 per cent copper, with balance lead, with some fine small particles of black copper and carrying the gold and silver values.

A quartzose ore carrying about 2 per cent iron, 21 per cent silica and about 25 per cent copper in the form of a gray copper sulphide, with approximately 2 per cent of the copper in the form of a carbonate, and the balance consisting of clayey matter (silica).

The fuel used was an oxidized iron ore (Gossan) carrying about 35.50 in gold, considerable silica and some alumina. Fuel used, 9 per cent coke. Furnace ran hot and slag liquid. Product consisted of black copper of about 91 per cent purity, with 1 per cent of the product in the form of a high grade matte (blue metal) as a top layer over bars. Slags assayed 9-10 of 1 per cent copper.

One No. 2 furnace was a quartz ore carrying oxides and carbonates of copper, 9 per cent iron and 45 per cent silica, with some basic material. It ran about the same as ore No. 2, the product being black copper of about 55 per cent purity, with no matte production. Coke used, 10 per cent on charge. Furnace bottom kept hot and tapped easily.

Since the above runs were made the company has had a furnace in operation in Los Angeles, treating ores from that section of the State and from Arizona with even better results than were produced at Reno.

The ability of the Vulcan furnace to take raw sulphide ores and pass them through the furnace without previously desulphurizing and turn out high-grade copper bullion, in addition to the small cost of installation and maintenance after installation bids fair to revolutionize the mining and smelting industry.
